

Midweek Bridge Break 1st - 4th April 2014

The 4* St Brelade's Bay Hotel, Jersey

Jack Stocken and Lorna Heaton are excited to be hosting the midweek Bridge break to St Brelade's Bay, Jersey, after a successful trip in 2007. Jack and Annabel Stocken at Yorkshire Bridge will be organising all aspects of the break.

St Brelade's Bay is a luxurious and friendly 4* hotel which has a truly special location, set in 5 acres of stunning gardens and overlooking one of the most beautiful beaches in the Channel Islands. The entire hotel was lovingly refurbished in 2011 to the highest standard and in 2012 opened a state of the art Health Club, with indoor swimming pool, relaxing spa and steam room. The hotel has a tennis court and the renowned Le Moye golf course nearby.

Jersey is the most southerly point in the British Isles and has a unique climate as it is only fourteen miles from France and warmed by the Gulf stream. We will fly as a group from Gatwick with British Airways (flights and transfers are included in the package price). An optional half day excursion will be organised to discover the delights of the island.

As it is a midweek break we are able to stay for an extra night, so more time to hone up your skills at the Bridge table! The Bridge standard is friendly Intermediate, as always, and no partner needed (NB - these holidays are not suitable for those used to a serious 24 board Duplicate). Jack will teach Andrew's lessons and excellent set hands. Please book early as numbers are limited.

Jersey: Jersey is the most southerly point in the British Isles and has a unique climate as it is only fourteen miles from France and warmed by the Gulf stream. Jersey has been an island for approximately 8,000 years and at its extremes it measures just 10 miles east to west and six miles north to south.

Jersey possesses a fascinating and complex history stretching back over a thousand years. Its very landscape - Norman style farmhouses, narrow winding lanes, small fields and French street names - reflects its entwinement with the fates of two great nations: Britain and France.
